CONTRACTS OF CARRIAGE – A STUDY OF CONTROVERSIAL PROVISIONS WHICH DIVIDE SHIPPERS, BROKERS AND CARRIERS

This exciting webinar is the FIFTH in our series this year. Please mark your calendars and sign-up today!

Date: Thursday, June 26, 2008
Time: 4:00 PM EST
Moderator: Henry Seaton, Seaton & Husk L.P.
Guests: Scott W. McMickle, Dennis, Corry, Porter & Smith L.L.P.

This interactive webinar will address 12 often seen contract provisions which divide the carrier and shipper/broker community. Among the issues to be discussed are offsets, waiver of Carmack, broadly worded indemnity and additional insurance language which extends carrier responsibilities beyond legal liability, forum jurisdiction clauses, broadly worded back solicitation provisions, special and consequential damages, surrender of recourse to consignors upon nonpayment and other issues which divide the transportation community and lead to unpredictable results.

Most troubling is the perception that extraordinary duties assumed by contract are covered by typical commercial general liability, cargo and BI/PD policies maintained by carriers in the ordinary course. Scott McMickle, a leading expert on transportation insurance issues, will lead the discussion of contractual indemnity and additional insurance provisions and coverage issues.
